Why Not Get a Good Piano Cheap While You Can?

You will never have the opportunity again to obtain a piano at such prices that are prevailing at our store during our big Remodeling Sale. Why not take advantage of this opportunity? We are offering a line of Pianos at reduced prices that convince every Piano buyer that looks them over that this sale is bona-fide in every way and not a fake. We must dispose of our entire stock so the contractors can begin work. Our line consists of the world's famous makes, such as Chickering & Sons, Haines Bros., Becker & Son, Conover, Kingsbury, Armstrong, Warner & Wellington.

Xmas Suggestions

From the store that shows you more and prices them lower than any other place in town. This list of suggestions is but a part of all the things we have to please women, men, girls, boys and children. Business never was as brisk. Now we are even better prepared. But the stocks are being "dug into" and you better hurry, otherwise you may get left. Those who shop in the morning evade the discomfort of the afternoon rushes. Store open at 8 a. m.

MONDAY WE COMMENCE ONE OF THE GREATEST SALES OF FINE BRIC-A-BRAC

Ever held in the City of Louisville. Several merchants in needy circumstances could not accept the orders. The jobbers, rather than have the goods on hand, sold them to us at a price to enable us to offer the finest of bric-a-brac at about half value prices.

FRED HOERTER OUT.

Fred Hoerter, the popular Assistant Live Stock Inspector, who was accidentally deprived of the toes on his left foot while riding in a gasoline launch last September, has recovered sufficiently to throw away his crutches. He was on the streets early this week, shaking hands with old friends and receiving their congratulations.

NICE SUM REALIZED.

Miss Mary Glenn, of 3826 Third avenue, won the first prize for selling the greatest number of tickets for Mackin Council's Thanksgiving euchre. She sold 850 tickets and received a handsome gold watch. Miss Nannie Miller, who sold 350 tickets, also received a gold watch. Misses Mary Hoffman and Jen-nle Donnelly also received prizes on account of their large sales of tickets.

That the euchre was a success may be imagined when it is announced that although ninety prizes were awarded winners of the games, the net receipts of the afternoon and evening amounted to $400. The affair was given under the auspices of the Gymnasium Committee and the funds will be used in equipping the gymnasium with modern apparatus.

SUCCESSFUL MISSION.

The Rev. Father Vincent, of St. Boniface's convent, concluded an eight days' mission at Convenience, Harrison county, Ind., last Sunday. Every service was well attended and there is every indication that the mission was productive of good results.

BACK FROM ROME.

The Right Rev. John J. Hartley, Bishop of Columbus, Ohio, arrived in New York from Rome on Saturday. Bishop Hartley had a private audience with His Holiness Pope Pius X. and bears the Papal blessing to his flock. Archbishop Christie, of Portland, Oregon, returned from Rome with Bishop Hartley.

SAVED SIGHT.

Patrick Donelan, a worthy member of Division 3, A. O. H., who suffered the loss of an eye as the result of an operation at Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital, is progressing favorably and is expected to be out next week. The operation was necessary to save his eyesight.
